Dog Grooming Course

Level 3 Award in Dog Grooming

Keen to study Dog Grooming by distance learning? Do you love dogs? Have you ever thought about making it a career? There are over 8 million dogs in the UK, with a significant growth in dog grooming, as people are keen to emulate celebrities like Paris Hilton and Kelly Osborne who are never seen without a faithful pup by their side.

This course would also be perfect if you wanted to perfect your grooming techniques on your own dog and save yourself the expense each month.

The course includes a FREE DVD entitled Dog Grooming the Basics and a FREE book called "Dog Grooming For Beginners" featuring all 87 recognised breeds.

Like all Start Learning courses, you will have access to tutor support and our courses are designed in bite sized sections to make learning easier and more flexible. So Start Learning now!

Entry Requirements

This course is suitable both for beginners and those who already groom dogs and no previous experience is needed. However, as the course requires a great deal of time, effort and attention to detail, it is not suitable for anyone with back problems or repetitive motion injuries.

At Start Learning we believe that everyone should have the opportunity to expand their knowledge and study further, so we try to keep our entry requirements to a minimum.

Your Questions Answered

Is this course suitable for me?

This course is suitable both for beginners and those with an established background with dogs. You don't need any previous experience - the course is aimed at students who wish to provide quality grooming for their own dogs, as well as those who are thinking of setting up their own grooming business.

All you need is a love of dogs, patience and a mature outlook! However, as the course requires a great deal of time, effort and attention to detail, it is not suitable for anyone with back problems or repetitive motion injuries.

What will I learn on the course?

Our Dog Grooming course gives you the opportunity to learn in detail about all aspects of grooming dogs. The course includes the history of humankind's relationship with dogs, in-depth details of the grooming process, as well as helpful advice on how to set up and run your own dog grooming business. Even vets and dog breeders have studied this discipline successfully!

What skills will I gain?

By completing our distance learning Diploma in Dog Grooming, you can expect to develop a range of valuable skills. These include:

- A detailed understanding of the relationship between humans and dogs and a working knowledge of the long history of this relationship
- An in-depth knowledge of a wide range of different breeds of dog and the ability to adapt grooming techniques to suit each breed
- The ability to understand that each dog has a unique personality and how to adapt accordingly, so grooming is efficient and hassle-free
- The ability to groom dogs as quickly as possible whilst showing maximum attention to detail
- The business skills necessary to help in the setting up of a dog grooming service

How do I gain practical experience?

Why not approach your friends and family and ask if you can groom their dogs for free? This will really boost your confidence!

Do you include work tools with the course?

No, this is a theory-based course. If you plan to start your own business you will need to buy the relevant equipment.

How can I set up my own dog grooming business after taking the course?

The course features lots of information about how to set up in business working for yourself. Don't worry, it's not as daunting as it sounds!

I already have a job

Great! But you can't beat working for yourself. Just think: nobody to tell you what to do - you're completely your own boss! You don't have to answer to anyone but yourself, you can choose the hours you work, no commuting to work... once you've started you'll never look back!

But there's a recession on!

There is always a market for dog grooming, even in a recession. Dog owners are always going to want to keep their pets well groomed and looked after.
